AND THE BEST OF EVERYTHING IN BETWEEN.

ROYAL GORGE BRIDGE

Hanging above the wild Arkansas River, the Royal Gorge Bridge is one of the world's highest suspension bridges, and a legendary feat of engineering renowned the world over. Built in 1929 for $350,000, the cost today would exceed $18 million. But for those who venture across it, whether walking or driving, the experience is priceless.

INCLINE RAILWAY

Built in 1931, and featuring a 45-degree angle, the Incline Railway is one of the world's steepest, and is still considered one of the most difficult structures ever built. Here, timeless granite walls loom all around as you descend over 1,500 feet to the canyon floor, a mere 50 feet at its widest. Looking up, the Bridge appears as a delicate ribbon.

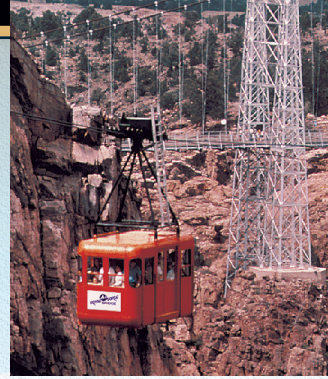

SOARING EAGLE ZIP LINE

The Soaring Eagle Zip Line begins on the 1,000-foot-high granite northern wall of the Royal Gorge. From there, you'll zip along 1,400 feet of canyon walls from 1,000 to 800 feet above the Arkansas River. Zip 700 feet over and 700 feet back. With two riders secured side-by-side, the zip line is family friendly. This is an extra-pay feature. Open March through October and holidays.

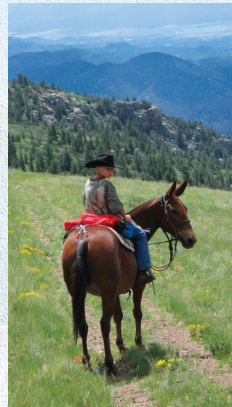

AERIAL TRAM

Gliding more than 1,100 feet above the canyon floor is one of the world's longest single-span aerial trams. The ride offers exceptional 360-degree views of the Gorge, the Bridge, the Park and the majestic Sangre de Cristo Mountains.

TRAIL RIDES

You'll think you're on the Santa Fe Trail as you make your way through the pines and evergreens of Royal Gorge Country on the back of a mule led by Watt Mule Company wranglers. Mules are sure-footed animals suited for all types of terrain, and the best way to travel backcountry to the rim of the Royal Gorge. Try the half-hour View Point, the hour View Point and Terrain Trail Ride, or the advanced two-hour Rim of the Gorge Extreme Ride. This is an extra-pay feature. See photos and learn more about the trail rides at www.wattmules.com.

WAPITI WESTERN WILDLIFE PARK

The Wapiti Western Wildlife Park is a 10-acre exhibit that features a unique combination of native Colorado wildlife in their natural habitat. Featuring white American Bison, a herd of Rocky Mountain Elk, and the seldom seen but unforgettable icons of the mountains, the Rocky Mountain Bighorn Sheep, it's a one-of-a-kind opportunity for the entire family to stroll through the paths and see these magnificent animals up close in their natural habitat.

MOUNTAIN MAN TRADING POST

Colorado's past comes alive with the echoing crack of a black powder rifle as you enter the Mountain Man Trading Post. These Mountain Men from the 1800s will entertain as well as educate.

Seasonal – May to September.

ENTERTAINING AND EDUCATIONAL

Visit the Plaza Theatre for a historical look at the Gorge and surrounding area, including a video that combines education and entertainment for a look back at how the Royal Gorge used to be. Special entertainment from May to September includes a magic show.

FAMILY FUN

From our own special hickory-smoked barbeque, to classic American grilled hamburgers, to homemade ice cream, you'll find a great selection of food and snacks throughout the Park. And, of course, what's a vacation without shopping? There are stores tucked away throughout the Park, so you can take home a reminder of your special time at our special place.

SKYCOASTER

The Royal Rush Skycoaster is the most awesome adrenaline rush in the state. Imagine a free-fall tower sweeping you 50 mph to hang momentarily 1,300 feet above the Arkansas River, which looks like a tiny blue line below. Recently named the scariest Skycoaster in the world. This is an extra-pay feature. Open March to October and holidays.

BIGHORN MOUNTAINTOP LODGE

For the ultimate Royal Gorge experience, make plans to stay overnight at the Bighorn Mountaintop Lodge, located just a short stroll from the Park. And be sure to ask about our special whitewater rafting packages, which combine two unforgettable attractions – one of the world's highest suspension bridges and some of the world's most intense whitewater rafting – for one totally affordable price. Call or check out our website for participating companies.
